

Slow 1925

ROLLER BLIND SYSTEM WITH SPRING OPERATION

System fitted with decelerating device to regulate blind ascent.

The decelerating device, inside the winding tube, protects the blind by slowing down raising, so the system can also be used with light and washable fabrics.

Stopping the blind in any position is guaranteed by the cam-type stop.

The system is suitable for domestic and professional environments.

23 mm \varnothing winding tube.

Suitable for frame installation.

